The

JOLLY ROGER

Of 1948

to

V.O. Harp, Superintendent

First Individual Yearly
Publicaction
of
Lytle Public Schools

Editor in Chief
Raymond Roark

Adviser
Mrs. Ken Clover

MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION,
Who have made possible the improvements in the school this year.
Left to right: V. W. Martin; D. D. Walker; E. L. Been, president; Van E. McDonald, secretary; John Mayhew; Wm. M. Smith. (Not pictured is C. W. Williamson.)

LYTLE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Whose interest and support has carried forward the improvement program of the school, as well as the community.

Every person of the community has some part in the work of this organization. Pictured here at one of the regular Tuesday luncheon meetings are, left to right: R. M. Martin; Dr. W. H. Joyce; Mike Habarka; Van D. McDonald; John Mayhew; V. O. Harp; and Herman Knippa.

HILIGHT AND JOLLY ROGER STAFF

The seniors with their sponsor, Mrs. Ken Clover, have been responsible for the publication of the school paper, THE HILIGHT, and the school annual, THE JOLLY ROGER. Not pictured above, but whose efforts have done much toward making these publications a success are: Roger Carlton, who sold the majority of the ads for the annual; John Vilas, Kent Wymore, and Annie Minton who helped get material in order; and Billy Pullin, Maurine Williamson and Jo Ann Tate who were class consultants.

Raymond Roark is editor in chief of the JOLLY ROGER. Donald Baker acted as editor of the HILIGHT for the majority of issues.
